

STUDENT ASSISTANCE APPLICATION

What is Student Assistance?

Student Assistance funding is available from the school for the purpose of extending financial assistance to eligible families for school related expenses.

Who can apply for Student Assistance?

Any parent or carer who is responsible for their child's school costs and who require financial assistance may apply.

Expenses you can apply for:

Student Assistance can be used for the payment of elective fees, school uniform items including footwear and student equipment e.g., calculator and books.

How to apply:

Complete the application on the back of this letter. All questions must be completed. A separate application should be lodged for each child you require assistance for.

How funds are allocated:

Each application is reviewed by the school's Senior Executive and funds are allocated according to the individual needs of the applicant.

How to lodge an application:

You may return the application form to the school's Accounts Office or post to the address shown above.
