Dear Parent/Carer

Year 9 Delhantie Youth Care Excursion – INFORMATION AND CONSENT FORM

Your child is invited to participate in a Wellbeing Educational excursion to participate in a Resilience and Wellbeing Workshop to be held at and facilitated by the Delhantie Youth Care Centre Bulahdelah on Wednesday 1 June 2022.

The Delhantie Youth Care Centre have a mission to restore young lives. With their programs structured to assist youth to deal with the struggles in their lives by providing them with the basic life principles. They encourage, educate and equip them with the personal skills and tools in restoring their lives to manage life effectively and move forward. They help free feelings of low self esteem, self hate, anger and boredom and be transformed by a new interest in life.

Travel will be by private bus. The cost per student will be free, very gratefully sponsored by funding granted to provide youth services and Wingham High School Wellbeing. The bus will depart from Wingham High School at 6:00 am and will return at approximately 4 pm. The excursion will be supervised by Ms N. Meaney, Mrs K Brown, Ms J. Abbott and Mr M.Wright. Teacher contact details whilst on the excursion are the School Mobile Phone: 0477 757 721.

Special Requirements for this excursion are Students are to wear full sport uniform. Lunch will be provided by the venue free of charge. There will be a stop at McDonalds on the way for a quick breakfast, if they like. A change of clothes and a towel are needed if they go in the mud pit. Please bring a few water bottles and snacks.

Please detach the consent form below and have it returned to Student Services by Monday 16 May 2022.
